

Understanding your new ID card

Have you ever wondered what all that stuff on your ID card really means? Here's a sample of what you might see. Each plan is different.

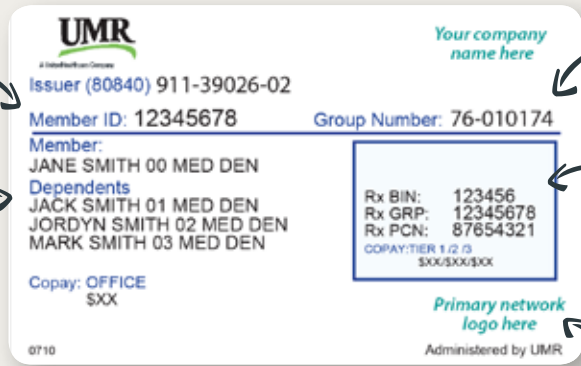

The number assigned specifically to you to track all of your benefits and claims information.

A list of the family members who are covered under your plan.

The number assigned to identify your group health plan.

Information about your prescription drug plan. Pharmacists use this to process your claims.

Your medical provider network, also referred to as your preferred provider organization (PPO). Going to doctors, clinics and hospitals in your network will save you money.

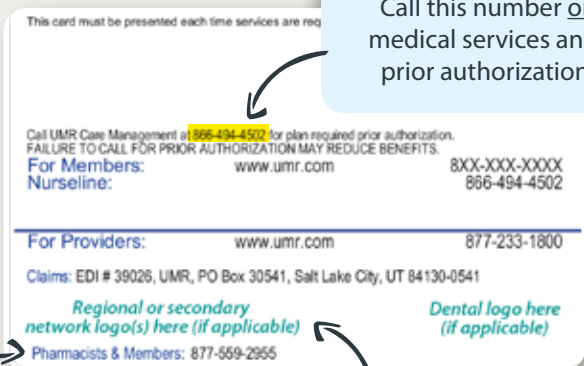

More on the back

Look for important contact information, including the customer service phone number to call for answers to claims or benefit questions. You can also go to umr.com to check your benefits, claims status, accumulators and eligibility.

Call this number only when you need medical services and your plan requires prior authorization for those services.

Call this number when you have questions about pharmacy benefits.

If you're traveling outside your in-network coverage area, look to see if you have access to a regional or secondary network.
